Presents: The Integrative Practitioner's Approach to Diagnosing, Evaluating and Properly Managing Patients

February 19/20

Fort Smith, Arkansas

About The Instructor and Course

INSTRUCTOR: Victor Carsrud, DC,MS,DABCI,DCBCN is a graduate of Texas Chiropractic College and is a post graduate instructor for them. He currently runs a full time integrated clinical practice in two locations in northwest and south Austin, Texas where he combines conventional and cutting edge diagnostic testing with nutritional and herbal protocols for balance through a functional medicine model. He is a frequent lecturer and the author of various scientific publications. He also regularly co-hosts the "People's RX" radio shows in Austin. He has particular interest in anti-aging, hormone balancing, autoimmune issues, food and seasonal allergies and chronic disease management.

THIS COURSE: is designed for the integrative practitioner to diagnose, evaluate and properly manage a spectrum of disorders beginning with basic metabolic dysfunctions through their end stage manifestation in cardiovascular disease. Particular emphasis will be place on proper evaluation of the thyroid. He will also focus on nutritional, dietary and lifestyle changes essential in the support and management of the diabetic and pre-diabetic patient. Much attention will be paid as well to the support and management of the cardiovascular patient.
